(each a “Tax Managed Fund” and, collectively, the “Tax Managed Funds”)

1. Tax Deferred Switching

The AIF is being amended to reflect the impact of Bill C-29 which received first reading on October 25, 2016 (“Bill C-29”) and which will amend the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the “Tax Act”). Bill C-29, if enacted as proposed, will eliminate tax-deferred switching between corporate class mutual funds as well as tax-deferred switching between classes of a corporate class mutual fund effective for switches that occur on or after January 1, 2017. However, Bill C-29, unlike earlier proposed amendments to the Tax Act, will continue to permit tax-deferred switching between series of a class of shares that forms part of a corporate class mutual fund.

The following technical amendments are made to the AIF to reflect these changes:

- (1) The last two sentences in the second paragraph under the sub-heading “Mechanics of a Switch” on page 20 of the AIF are deleted and replaced with the following:

However, if Bill C-29 which received first reading on October 25, 2016 (“Bill C-29”) is enacted as proposed, it is expected that a switch on or after January 1, 2017 between classes of a Tax Managed Fund, or to another Tax Managed Fund, including a Natixis Tax Managed Fund, will be treated as a disposition for tax purposes of the shares switched for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value thereof and taxable investors will be required to include any resulting capital gain in income for tax purposes.

A switch between series of a class of a Tax Managed Fund will continue not to be treated as a disposition for tax purposes.

- (2) The second sentence in the first paragraph under the heading “Income Tax Considerations” on pages 54 and 55 of the AIF is deleted and replaced with the following:

The comments are based on the current provisions of the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder, the current administrative practices and policies of the Canada Revenue Agency (“CRA”) published in writing prior to the date hereof and proposed amendments to the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (“Tax Proposals”) including those in Bill C-29 (and assume that such amendments will be enacted as proposed).

- (3) The third last sentence in the sixth paragraph under the sub-heading “Taxation of the Funds” on page 56 of the AIF under the heading “Income Tax Considerations” is deleted and replaced with the following:

See “Bill C-29” below.

- (4) The first paragraph under the sub-heading “Tax Managed Funds” on page 58 of the AIF under the heading “Income Tax Considerations” is deleted and replaced with the following:

Investors may be subject to tax in respect of their investment in a Tax Managed Fund when the Tax Managed Fund pays an ordinary dividend or a capital gains dividend or when a share is disposed of, such as on the redemption of the share or, if Bill C-29 is enacted as proposed, on switches on or after January 1, 2017 between classes of a Tax Managed Fund, or to another Tax Managed Fund.

- (5) The last two sentences in the first paragraph under the sub-heading “Switching or Redeeming Securities” on page 59 of the AIF under the heading “Income Tax Considerations” are deleted and replaced with the following:

However, if Bill C-29 is enacted as proposed, a switch on or after January 1, 2017 between classes of a Tax Managed Fund, or to another Tax Managed Fund, will be treated as a disposition for tax purposes of the shares switched for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value thereof and the cost of the shares received on the switch will be equal to such fair market value. A switch between series of a class of a Tax Managed Fund will continue not to be treated as a disposition for tax purposes.

- (6) The sub-heading “2016 Federal Budget Proposals” on pages 59 and 60 of the AIF under the heading “Income Tax Considerations” and the two paragraphs below this sub-heading are deleted and replaced with the following: Bill C-29

If Bill C-29 is enacted as proposed, a switch on or after January 1, 2017 between classes of a Tax Managed Fund, or to another Tax Managed Fund, will be treated as a disposition for tax purposes of the shares switched for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value thereof and the cost of the shares received on the switch will be equal to such fair market value. A switch between series of a class of a Tax Managed Fund will continue not to be treated as a disposition for tax purposes.

Other benefits of corporate class mutual funds remain unchanged.

2. What are your legal rights?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from your agreement to buy mutual funds within two business days of receiving the simplified prospectus or fund facts,
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours of receiving confirmation of your order, or
- cancel your purchase agreement and get your money back if the simplified prospectus, fund facts, annual information form or financial statements misrepresent any facts about the fund. You may also be entitled to get your money back or make a claim for damages if you have suffered a loss.

The time limit to exercise these rights depends on the governing legislation in your province or territory.

For more information, refer to the securities legislation of your province or territory or consult your lawyer.
